

Mark T. Ellis
3836 Walhampton Dr.
Lexington, KY 40517
(859) 271-9973
mark.ellis@insightbb.com

Objective

Instructional Designer which will utilize two years of education technology training and twelve years of teaching experience to contribute effective training and assessments to a corporation or organization.

Special Skills

- Instructional Curriculum Design – Ability to design and implement coursework for students as well as assessments.
- Web Design – Created web sites for businesses, increasing their visibility on the Internet.
- Multimedia – Designed online multimedia presentations utilizing state of the art programs.
- eLearning/Distance Learning – Wrote and designed online course for a university project.
- Content Development – Ability to write proficiently in a variety of settings.
- Graphic Design – Thorough knowledge of graphics programs and design concepts.
- Public Speaking – Delivered speeches at public events as well as lectures.

Tools

HTML/XML	Camtasia	Blackboard
CSS/XSL	Acrobat	Flash
Fireworks	Illustrator	Dreamweaver
Photoshop	MS Office	PowerPoint

Employment History

History and Technology Teacher - Blue Grass Baptist School, Lexington, KY (2001-2009)

Designed and implemented courses which taught students how to use Internet research tools and utilize graphics programs while designing websites for online school projects. Wrote manuals, prepared assessments and designed curricula for students over a wide variety of subjects. Taught an entire staff on how to use social media to communicate with parents and students. Improved and redesigned school website which gave the institute a more professional appearance.

Director of Bands – Wolfe County High School, Campton, KY (2000-2001)

City Associate - City of Lynchburg, Lynchburg, VA (1999- 2000)

Director of Bands - Hargrave Military Academy – Chatham, VA (1998-1999)

College Student – Lynchburg College – Lynchburg, VA (1994-1998)

Graphic Artist – Retro Graphics, Anchorage Alaska (1992-1994)

Education

Master of Education Technology, Boise State University, Boise Idaho (2009)

Bachelor of Arts Music Education, Lynchburg College, Lynchburg, Virginia (1998)

Primary Leadership and Development Course, Fort Dix, New Jersey (1985)

United States Navy School of Music (Army Element) Naval Amphibious Base, Norfolk Virginia (1976)

Masters Degree Projects

- Created an online game based on the geography of America to make learning more visual and fun.
- Created an entire online course to educate equine businesses on how to market their enterprises.
- Implemented instructional design skills by making assessments, designing manuals, and evaluating implementation for an education course.